June's Program

Our program for June is a relaxing, sit back, let the profusion of color and design delight your creative juices as Pineapple Fabrics indulges us with their options. Pineapple Fabrics is a family owned company quite close to us in Archdale, NC. They specialize in precut and packaging color sets sing five fabrics to begin that journey of less stress in designing your project as well as saving you time and energy. Come enjoy the presentation of how their company was started and how they have expanded into the quilting market to make an impact!

See you there! Deb

DON'T FORGET: Quilt Show Chair meeting is at 6pm before the regular meeting!

Minutes from May's Meeting

The May 23, 2017 meeting was called to order by President, Judy Whitehead. There were 23 members and 5 guests attending the meeting.

Deb Waldron introduced the May program – Modern Applique by Kathleen Baden. Kathleen has taught quilting for 20 years, and dove into the modern movement about 5 years ago. She presented a trunk show on Modern Applique. Kathleen will also be conducting a modern applique workshop on Wednesday, May 24.

Kathleen's website, <https://kbquilts.com>, has information about her students' work and a gallery of photos.

The business meeting began following Kathleen's program.

Judy Whitehead asked for a membership vote on whether to have show-and-tell before or after the business meeting. This was a request brought forward by one of our Members-at-Large.

The Guild voted to have show-and-tell before the business meeting. That change will begin at the June meeting. Judy Whitehead emphasized the importance of Guild members participating in the business meeting after show-and-tell.

Dolores Forbare reported the treasury has a balance of $9,931.85. The collection for the Mooresville Soup Kitchen was $56.

For the monthly mini quilt and accessory, Judy Whitehead showed samples. The May block is Summertime Fun, and the May accessory is a casserole carrier.

Diana Jasany thanked the Guild members for their participation in her Girl Scout project – Diana's Golden Needle. She received the Gold Award from the Girl Scouts for her project that made 117 Trip-Around-the-World twin size quilts, 75 other pattern twin size quilts and 44 baby quilts. Laura and Diana provided a cake thanking Guild members.

Laura also presented Diana with a Trip-Around-the-World quilt in honor of Diana's Gold Award. The quilt backing includes tee-shirts and photographs of Diana's journey for the project.

Colleen Thraikill reported about six Guild members met at her home recently for a workday making items for the upcoming Quilt Show gift shop. The items included potato pockets, fabric boxes and microwave potholders. Colleen asked members to make mug buddies from pre-cut fabric kits.

Guild members were reminded to send information for the newsletter to Snow Wildsmith.

Guild members were also reminded about the Guild Scholarship Fund to be used for workshops, and the Blue-Yellow-Green challenge for the Quilt Show. The challenge deadline is the July meeting.

Laurie Jasany told members about two new library books for the Square-in-a-Square technique from the March meeting and workshop.

Julie Murphy gave an update on the Quilt Show. Julie announced that Cindy Magee, her Co-Chair, is moving to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania due to her husband's job. Cindy will be moving to Pittsburgh before the Quilt Show.

Julie emphasized the need for quilt submissions for the show. She asked members to submit quilts, even if they don't want the quilts judged.

Julie would like to display winning quilts from prior shows. She asked members, who have winning quilts from prior shows, to submit the quilts using the entry form and indicate the year and prize the quilt won.

Julie and Colleen encouraged members to submit their entry forms as soon as possible. The entry form is on the Guild website. Julie said she would also send, via email, a spreadsheet that enables members to populate the entry form directly from the spreadsheet.

Judy Whitehead asked for a volunteer to assist with making ribbons that are paper pieced. Barbara Barrier volunteered to assist Judy.

Quilt Show Committee Chairs will have their volunteer sign-up sheets available at the June meeting.

Upcoming Programs

July

July is our annual salad and dessert potluck. Please feel free to share your tastiest recipe for all of us to gawk over! In addition, we will have a business meeting to answer questions regarding quilt show issues or quilt guild issues or anything else anybody wants to bring to the table, so to speak. I will be asking for volunteers to decorate tables – I figure 6....? Thanks!

Workshop

July 29th (Saturday) we will be having our scrap quilt workshop. The design we voted on was Trail Mix. Here is the link to the pattern: <http://www.allpeoplequilt.com/quilt-patterns/bed-quilts/trail-mix> I already have my baggies labeled and some scraps in them – haha – seriously, I must decrease this mess of scraps I have on hand!

August

Our August meeting is the Quilt Show Wrap UP! So let's make it fun!

September

Our speaker is Bea Lea; she is a quilter from NC that has designed numerous quilts that have been published in Quiltmaker Magazine as well as others. She is going to present on EQ7, she has numerous tutorials on her website. Her website is: www.beaquilter.com, check it out – in addition her blog is sweet and she does lots with Accuquilt for those of you that have one. Let me know if there's anything you want her to cover as I will be contacting her soon to hash out the agenda.

Upcoming Programs

Wed, Sept. 27

ROAD TRIP (we love road trips in this house!) Our goal is YLI Threads, tour the facility, check out the items and for those that wish, a stop at Mary Jos.

October

Our presenter is Margaret Caughman and her lecture is, “Granny, Grandma and Me, the Journey of 3 Generations of Quilters.” I have heard she is a great story teller and has quilters to back up her stories! What could be better???

Workshop Oct. 25 (Wednesday)

The workshop for October is by Jennifer Kay – she is another NC quilter with an incredible eye for design and color. She is also a longarmer and has numerous awards in her name. Additionally, she is a representative for Marti Mitchell and don't we all love her rulers. Hopefully, I will have a sample or at least a picture of what we will be doing.

November

Besides presenting our table runners as we do every November, we are going to have our auction in November. This gives us some time after the Quilt Show to “clean out” as well as any left-over remnants from the show that we might barter off. This can be a huge money maker for the Guild so that is our goal this year!

— Deb Waldron

Quilt Show News

It's getting closer! Please submit your entries. Please submit your entries. Remember, even if your quilts aren't finished, you may submit the entry form as long as you have a picture that enables us to identify the finished product. Story cards need to be created for each entry – please don't make Colleen do 200 at once! Deadline is June 27th – the June Guild Meeting. The entry form can be found on the Guild Website -- <https://lknquilters.files.wordpress.com/2017/04/2017-entry-formfinal2.pdf>

Time to Step-up! Sign up sheets for various posts for the quilt show will be at the May meeting. Please visit the sign-up table. There will be many opportunities for before and during the show – Intake, Judging, Welcome Table, Vendors, Playpen Frenzy, Gift Shoppe, Donation Quilt, and of course setup and takedown.

Blue-Yellow-Green Challenge – Have yours ready to bring to the July meeting. We are doing an in-house judging – ribbons will be awarded by your fellow guild members for their favorite quilts. And then you can enter your quilt in the show in its correct category, and if you should so choose, it will be judged by the official quilt judges.

Ads – Have you handed a business person one of our advertising forms? Keep one or two forms in your purse and give them to any local business person you have contact with. We could surely use a few more to help with expenses this year. Businesses really do want to be supportive! In the past we have made over $900 selling ads – let's see if we can top that number.

Gift Shoppe Items – keep them coming ladies! Your work is amazing and will proudly be sold in the gift shoppe at our show.

Vendors – We still have a couple of open spots for Vendors. Please give Snow any ideas you may have for additional names of people who may be able to fill these spots.

A Call for Quilts!

Marian Lytle, Director of the Mooresville Library has graciously and enthusiastically agreed to display an assortment of our quilts in the Library to help pique interest in our August Lake Norman Quilters Quilt Show.

What an opportunity to show off our handiwork!

We are hoping to get (ON LOAN OF COURSE) 8 to 12 small or medium size quilts from our guild members representing a range of quilting and styles and techniques. Surely, you would love to have your favorite quilt in this display. Quilts need not be new. Five, ten years old? Fine!

The quilts will be displayed (secured to the railing) between the Main and Ground floors of the Library from Thursday, July 20 thru Monday August 7 along with Show information.

SIZE MATTERS---48" W x 60" L or smaller.

If you would like to help make this a great promotion please email or mail me a picture of your quilt or at least a description and dimensions. We will select a variety for the display and make arrangements to get the quilts in July.

ONE CAVEAT--- The Library has good Security but cannot accept liability for the quilts, so please keep this in mind.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Barbara Skwara
